The LETTER BOX

Fitzgeralds May Reach
S. F. On December 22

(Editor's Note: The following from Manila, P. I., was written November 24 and delivered by Trans-Pacific Clipper Mail in Placerville, December 1.)

The people and their customs are interesting. In Manila and vicinity they belong to the tagalog clan or variety. They are of the brown race and will average a little larger and darker than the Japanese. They seem kind to their children of which they have plenty.

As a rule the child of the average parent is dressed simply in an undershirt until it is old enough to attend school. In the rural sections, quite often, it is not thought necessary to dress it in anything. Shoes are worn more here than they are in Japan and in China. Children usually go barefoot and when older wear the wooden soled variety of the Chinese, held to the foot by means of a strap or other material over the front of the foot.

The average Filipino takes much time out for rest. From noon to 2:00 o'clock the larger stores and other business houses are closed. He then lies down to sleep. As he rests so much during the day, it is not necessary for him to lie in bed too much during the night time.

Men dress in white, usually linen clothes the year around and while in the streets and working in their stores do not take off their coats.

He is fond of sports. Soccer ball, horse racing, and cock fighting are especially interesting to him. He goes in for gambling at all times.

When Spain gained possession of the islands, a wall was built around the Manila of that time. The space inclosed is about six tenths of a mile long and four tenths of a mile wide. The wall is twenty-five feet high and from twelve to eighty feet wide. It was surrounded by a moat on three sides from 100 to 300 yards wide and seven feet deep. On the fourth side is the Pasig River running into Manila Bay. Gateways were quite numerous in the wall with draw-bridges leading across the moat. The gates were closed at night.

Under American rule some of the gates were blasted to make wider openings for increased traffic. The walls, for modern warfare, would be of little value. The moat was completely filled in by means of dredgers operating in the harbor and piping the soil into the moat. It is now a level green lawn used as an athletic field for the people and a drilling field for the American and Filipino soldiers.

Sunday afternoon, after Church, I passed along this field and saw games of baseball, soft ball, tennis, golf, and at least calculation 500 playing soccer ball. Every soccer field was occupied and in addition hundreds had soccer balls and everybody was trying to see how hard he could kick the ball. No American football was in evidence.

They seem to have horse racing every Sunday and Wednesday. Tickets range from $5.00 to $12.50. Racing and cock fighting are great sport for them. They bet on everything. They have a copper centavo about the size of our half dollar. They will pitch this in contest all day, or until they go broke.

Since being here, I have attended baseball games twice, the latter time being on Thanksgiving Day. On both occasions double-headers were played by teams representing four different universities. General admission to the grandstand in the first instance was ten cents, while on Thanksgiving Day there was no charge. The boys did not play with the "zip" that is characteristic of our boys. Climate is too sultry. The El Dorado County High School team of last spring would have had little trouble in winning a series of games from any of these teams. Yesterday, in at least a dozen attempts to steal second base, all were successful, not a runner being thrown out there. The proportion of brunettes attending these games was largest I have ever witnessed. They have a very beautiful baseball field, grandstand and concrete fences.

An American all-star team came here to play the Filipinos in the fall of 1934. Some of the local fans tell how a little Filipino pitcher fanned Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig at this time. However, during the game played Dec. 9th, I note that the American team batted five home runs over the fence. Where the ball was batted over the concrete fence (colored green) they have painted a baseball, colored white, about a foot in diameter. Underneath the painting of the ball in each instance (Continued on page four)

ELKHORN TRIAL MAY END TODAY

Jury In City Court Hears Case In Which Alcoholic Act Breach Is Charged

The jury retired to consider the case at 2:30 o'clock and reported back at 4 o'clock finding the defendants guilty as charged and making a recommendation of leniency to the court.

Judge Creed set Monday at ten o'clock as the time for passing sentence. Wallace M. Ripley was the jury foreman.

The jury trial of Gus Barone and Marian Armstrong, operators of the Elkhorn tavern, accused of selling liquor to a person obviously intoxicated, in violation of Section 62 of the Alcoholic Beverages Control Act, opened Friday morning in city court before Police Judge E. E. Creed.

The hearing, before a jury, moved along swiftly and it seemed apparent at noon when an adjournment was taken until 1:30 o'clock that the issue would be submitted to the jury of four women and eight men by mid-afternoon.

The hearing is on a complaint brought by E. Y. Gray, with whom J. W. Caswell, City Officer Marvin Killian, Elbert Gray and Chief of Police James P. Morton were witnesses for the state.

Defense witnesses up to the noon recess were M. P. Harbin, Alvin Rudd, Gus Barone and Marian Armstrong.

The defense appeared to be that, in the particular instance involved in the issue the individual was not intoxicated but that he may have appeared to be so as a result of the infirmities of advanced age.

On the jury are Henry Lefevre, Wallace M. Ripley, Mrs. Maude Morey, Mrs. Esther Dugan, Mrs. Bertha Edelman, Mrs. Clara Ripley, Joe Blodaux, Alex. Ilosch, W. C. Henningsen, Bill Derby, J. W. Lee and William Myers.

In connection with the same case, and on the strength of further allegations by city and county officials, the liquor license of the Elkhorn was suspended by the state board of equalization on November 29th, pending further hearing before the board on December 18th.

Xmas Buying Spurs Trade

Sales For Period Are 6 To 12 Per Cent Better Than In '38

NEW YORK, (UP)—Christmas shopping imparted a lift to retail trade this week, but wholesale markets were somewhat irregular, Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reported today.

The authority observed that retail outlets continue to make "seasonal headway" and estimated that sales for the period were six to 12 per cent better than in the 1938 week.

Buying in Christmas Departments ran ahead of last year, the trade review said, especially in toys, small home furnishings, lingerie and accessories.

"FOREIGN" CAR PLATES MUST BE REGULARLY ISSUED

SACRAMENTO—Motorists eager to display license plates from Manhattan will have to register their cars in those places.

With numerous complaints on file from law enforcement agencies of the state, department of motor vehicles today issued a warning to stay-at-home travelers against the use of imitation foreign automobile license plates.

"The vehicle code is specific regarding the use of license plates," says Howard R. Philbrick, director of motor vehicles, "and officers of the California Highway Patrol have been instructed to warn autoists against use of such imitation plates that may confuse law enforcement agents on first observation."

The vehicle code makes it obligatory for department of motor vehicles and city and county officers to "seize any license plate" not legally issued to the car bearing the same.

Gary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Robinson, is nursing a sore finger with two stitches in it as a result of an encounter with his father's rascal.

Charles Leventon was among the callers Friday from Grizzly Flat.

Mrs. Robert Dodds was a visitor on Friday from Camino Ridge.

OK's Ship Transfer

Commissioner Max O'Rell Truitt, of the United States Maritime Commission, declared transfer of United States Lines ships to Panama registry was not in contravention of the Neutrality Act barring American ships from war zones. He described the transfer as "not a dodge, but a completely sound, bona fide situation." Isolationist leaders set up a vigorous protest.

JOB INSURANCE LAW CHANGES

New Legislative Act Liberalizing Range For Claims Effective

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—Applications for liberalized jobless benefit claims—on a new range of $10 to $18 a week instead of $7 to $10—were accepted today for the first time by the 81 offices of the State Department of Employment.

The new legislative act is expected to increase the work of the department because many unemployed persons have waited until December to take advantage of the new scales.

Claimants who have earned $300 during their base period will be entitled to benefits of $160 to $468. The department ended November with 60 per cent more claims on file than at the same time a year ago, all of which will be paid out on the old basis, which is computed at $7 per week on earnings of $156 up to $15 weekly for earnings of $1500.

Executive Director Carl L. Hyde estimated $50,000,000 will be paid out in benefits during 1940, a jump of $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 over 1939.

Clifton Wildman Hurt In Idaho Accident

Clifton Wildman, local engineer, is getting about with some difficulty after figuring in an automobile collision while on a recent trip to Atlanta, Idaho, with C. H. Brown of the Rosecrans mine.

Mr. Wildman reports that they were enroute from Atlanta to Boise when they were struck by a car going in the opposite direction which was on the "wrong" side of the mountain road.

The two were delayed a week in returning to Placerville awaiting the repair of Mr. Wildman's car at Boise, and Mr. Wildman reports that an after-effect of the experience includes a deficiency of circulation in his legs.

$14,707 ASKED IN SUIT, SEQUEL TO FIRE AT LUMBER MILL

E. E. Tuman is the plaintiff in a suit on file Friday in Superior Court asking $14,707 judgment against F. H. Brown and A. J. Ripley.

The complaint alleges that on April 26 of this year he was the owner of a sawmill valued at $2,608 located near Pollock Pines on property owned by F. H. Brown and leased to the plaintiff. Also on the ground was certain lumber, also claimed by the plaintiff.

Under an attachment issued against the plaintiff on the above date it is alleged Mr. Brown was put in charge of the property as keeper and that subsequent thereto, Mr. Brown and Mr. Ripley undertook operation of the mill and certain lumber on the ground was, it is charged, converted to their use.

The complaint charges that as a result of their carelessness and negligence in operation of the property, the mill burned July 15th.

The damages asked include the claimed value of the mill, $4,867 as representing the value of the lumber stored; $730 as representing a reasonable profit on that lumber; $1,500 for the leasehold, $5,000 for loss of business and $5,000 damages, aggregating $14,707.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brandon were visitors in the county seat on Friday from the Latrobe section.

JAMESON WILL HEAD GRAUGE

Plymouth Man, Native Of County, Long Active In Agricultural Interests

Harvey Jameson, of Plymouth, secretary of El Dorado-Amador Pomona Grange since its inception, was elected master for the ensuing year at the regular annual meeting of the Pomona held Thursday night at the I. O. O. F. hall, in Placerville. He succeeds Carl Vismann, of Fruit Ridge.

Mr. Jameson, a native of El Dorado County who still retains property interests in the southern section, has been active in various phases of agricultural interest for many years.

A rancher near Plymouth, he is a member of the Amador County Agricultural Conservation Association, chairman of the Farm Debt Adjustment Committee for Amador County, and is secretary of Shenandoah-Willow Springs Grange and of the four-county Grange council.

Other officers elected include, Ben Brown, of Pleasant Valley Grange, overseer; Arthur Carbine, of Pleasant Valley, steward; Marion Carpenter of Hangtown Grange, chaplain; Fred Mayhew, of Rescue Grange, treasurer; Robert Johnson, of Gold Trail, gate keeper; Elmer Porini, of Hangtown, secretary; Harold Harlin, of Three Forks, assistant steward; Agnes Blair, of Hangtown Grange, lecturer; Mae Kline, of Gold Trail, Ceres; Bertha Odlin, of Gold Trail, Pomona; Mabel Jameson, of Shenandoah-Willow Springs, Flora; Viola Bateman, of Hangtown Grange, assistant steward; Charles Mayhew, of Rescue Grange, executive committeeman, and Tina Wygersma, of Hangtown Grange, musician.

A potluck supper followed the meeting.

Among the business of the evening was the introduction and approval of the following resolution, copies of which are being addressed to the Governor, the Mayor of San Francisco, State Master George Sehmeyer, who is S. F. Harbor Commissioner, and to the press:

"That we deeply deplore the situation under which employer groups and the various labor groups of the Port of San Francisco have fought out their differences in such manner as to interrupt and paralyze the shipping service of that port, to the needless and irreparable injury of Agriculture and other innocent third parties."

"We strongly recommend that they be required to settle all such disputes by arbitration or other means such that the shipping service of the Port may not be interrupted, to the continued unjustified injury of growers and shippers of California."

102,245 To See Army, Navy Play Vanguard Of Rooters Throng Quaker City For Annual Classic

PHILADELPHIA, (UP)—The Army and Navy football squads, awaiting their meeting tomorrow at Municipal Stadium before an expected capacity crowd of 102,245, were scheduled to take their final workouts today as the vanguard of spectators flooded the city.

Navy's hopes suffered a minor jolt when Major Swede Larson, the head coach, announced that Lou Gray, Texas veteran who was a regular halfback prior to his injury two weeks ago, would be unable to play. His injury was aggravated, Larson said, in a scrimmage Wednesday.

Justice of the Peace Will G. Taylor, of Shingle, was attending to business and greeting friends in the county seat on Friday.

The meeting of officers and team managers of the county basketball league, scheduled for Thursday night at the high school, was postponed owing to the circumstance that Coach L. A. Brown, league president, had been called to the bedside of his mother, who is seriously ill.

George Wood, state range examiner under the AAA program, has been spending several days this week in Placerville at the offices of the Agricultural Conservation Association.

REDS SEIZE FINLAND

Three More Air Raids On Helsingfors As Ships Bombard Coast

MOSCOW, (UP)—Formation of a new Finnish government comprised of "rebel" Finnish soldiers and left wing politicians at Terioki on the Soviet-Finnish border, north of Leningrad, was announced officially tonight.

The new government will be known as the "Democratic Finnish Republic," dispatches to Tass, official Soviet news agency, from Leningrad said.

LONDON, (UP)—The official radio Moscow announced at 3:02 p. m. today that a new Finnish peoples' government has been established at Terioki, comprised of rebel Finnish soldiers and left wing Finnish politicians.

Presumably the town is in the hands of the Soviet army.

Establishment of a "rebel" government there would give Russia a pretext to "help" the new "Government" conquer the country.

By UNITED PRESS

Soviet Russia battered at Finnish defenses by air and sea with renewed power today and indicated that a new Finnish Socialist state must be formed to restore peace.

Three more aerial raids by Soviet planes caused damage and additional casualties in the suburbs of Helsingfors, where the Finnish government had fled.

Soviet warships bombarded Hangö, west of Helsingfors, and other Red naval units were reported hammering at Burgaa, east of the Finnish capital, where a landing was attempted with the aid of bombing planes.

Finnish reported heavy fighting from the Karelian isthmus, north of Leningrad, where they said their troops were holding the main defense lines and had captured more than 300 Russian prisoners.

On the arctic coast, soviet planes and troops were reported to have moved in against Petsamo (some messages said they had taken the port of Petsamo after a bombardment that set it afire) but fragmentary Finnish advices said the outcome still was uncertain.

Thousands of civilians evacuated Helsingfors, where soviet bombers yesterday dropped high explosives that inflicted heavy casualties in the center of the capital.

The resignation of the government of Finnish premier A. K. Cajander generally was believed to have been a move to reopen negotiations with Russia on the basis of the original Soviet demands for naval bases in Finland and an exchange of territory north of Leningrad.

Finnish sources reported that Risto Rytty, governor of the bank of Finland, was expected to head the new cabinet and that Sweden was being asked to forward a new communication from Helsingfors to Moscow, presumably in an effort to reopen negotiations. Disrupted communications lines and secrecy at Helsingfors, however, left the actual political situation clouded.

2 GYPSIES ADMIT GUILT; DRAW FINES; THIRD IS DISMISSED

Buck Del Maro, Lena Jureka and Ramona Del Maro, arrested Monday by county officials on charges of grand theft, were in justice court Thursday and the women were permitted to plead guilty to charges of petty theft.

Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis fined each of them $25, conditioned upon the restitution of $35 to Frank Mehwald, of Youngs district, who charged they had stolen that amount from him.

The charges against Buck Del Maro were dismissed.

Roosevelt Compliments Woman Reporter For Subtlety Of Her Query

WASHINGTON, (UP)—President Roosevelt today complimented a reporter on the subtlety of a question about a third term.

A correspondent—a woman—asked him what he was going to put on the walls of the executive office when he gave his marine pictures and models to the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library at Hyde Park.

The President, remarked that the question was subtle and told the correspondent that she must have stayed up two nights figuring out that question.

BOMBING HELD "SHOCKING"

"Trend To Force" Makes Small Nations Insecure, The President Declares

WASHINGTON, (UP)—President Roosevelt said today that news of Soviet bombings of Finnish territory came "as a profound shock" to this government and the people of the United States.

The President said that "the present trend to force makes insecure the independent existence of small nations in every continent and jeopardize the rights of mankind to self government."

He issued the statement in printed form and exhibited his concern for the serious turn of Baltic affairs. The President had received no Russian answer to his tender of United States good offices in settling the Russian-Finnish conflict, and neither nation had replied to his message last night urging against indiscriminate bombings.

The Finns, however, accepted his tender of good offices. The president refused to comment, or reveal future policies, when asked regarding possible application of the neutrality law, withdrawal of recognition from Russia, or possible recall of Ambassador Lawrence Steinhardt from Moscow for consultation.

DOCTOR'S CONVICTION IS REMANDED FOR NEW TRIAL

The manslaughter conviction voted by a superior court jury against Dr. Claude C. Long for the abortion death of Mrs. Genevieve Arganbright was set aside, due to judicial error, by the State Appellate Court says a San Francisco paper.

Holding that the record "would substantiate a conviction for murder," Justice Raymond Peters' opinion remanded the case back to the superior court for re-trial because of a "highly misleading" instruction to the jury from Superior Judge Sylvain J. Lazarus.

The instruction in question ordered the jury to acquit Doctor Long if it felt that the operation on Mrs. Arganbright, performed in May of 1937, had been done with due caution.

"That the jury was confused is indicated by what happened after they were first instructed," Justice Peters commented, pointing out that the jurors had asked a repetition of certain instructions, and that the instruction in question was one of three reread to the group.

"The giving of such a conflicting, confusing, contradictory, misleading and erroneous instruction on such a vital issue," Peters ruled, "constitutes reversible error."

The Superior Court was also advised, at the retrial, not to use an instruction given by Judge Lazarus which in effect told the jurors they could form their own opinions on evidence covered by expert medical testimony. The retrial, the court held, can only be on the charge of manslaughter as the first conviction automatically acquitted him of murder.

Distinguished Forester Visits In County

Dr. M. Korstin, dean of the School of Forestry at Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, and president of the Society of American Foresters, was a visitor in El Dorado County on Thursday, calling at the Institute of Forest Genetics and at Eldorado Forest headquarters.

There were twenty-eight tables Thursday evening at the whist party given by Marguerite Parlor No. 12, N. D. G. W., for the benefit of their homeless children's fund. Mrs. Gertrude Steffens was chairman for the evening.

194 Ships Sunk, Germans Claim

162 Sinkings Confirmed Of Which 52 Were Neutral Boats, Say Nazis

BERLIN (UP)—German submarines and mines have sunk 194 British and neutral ships totaling 735,768 tons between the start of the war and Nov. 29, it was announced officially today.

The Germans said that of the total number of ships they claimed to have destroyed, it confirmed that 162 vessels totaling 639,689 tons were sunk. Of these 52 were neutral ships. Destruction of the remaining 32 ships, which would make the total of 194, has not been confirmed.

The announcement said that actually the total is even higher because many British ships sunk off the British coasts never were reported by the British.

RESORT PARTNERSHIP INVOLVED IN COURT ACTION

A suit on file Friday in Superior Court in behalf of C. S. Park against W. T. Scanlon and others asks a dissolution of their partnership in the operation of Twin Bridges resort, an accounting of funds, such judgment as may be owing the plaintiff and the appointment of a receiver to conclude their joint enterprise.

The action charges that Park and Scanlon entered into a partnership by oral agreement on or about May 1 of this year and that Scanlon left the business on or about October 8 and went to Susanville.

Prior to leaving, it is charged, he removed certain property and merchandise from the place, of an estimated value of $500. The complaint indicates the resort has certain creditors whose claims are unpaid and to the end that affairs may come to an orderly settlement makes the prayer as above indicated.

DR. T. G. ATWOOD'S FATHER-IN-LAW STRICKEN

J. J. De Haven, father-in-law of Dr. T. Galt Atwood, of San Francisco, passed away very suddenly at his home in the Bay City Wednesday evening, presumably of a heart attack.

In response to the announcement of Mr. De Haven's passing, Mrs. Ted C. Atwood, the doctor's mother, left Friday morning for San Francisco with plans to remain there for several days. She was accompanied by her son, Loren, who was to return to Placerville Friday night.

Mr. De Haven is survived by his wife and his daughter, and by one sister.

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK. (UP)—Want to make a lot of money?

I mean a whole lot—so much that you can smoke caviar instead of tobacco in your pipe, get appointed ambassador somewhere, and quit buying suits with two pairs of pants?

All right, here's how to do it:

Start yourself a small university. It only has to be a little one, with maybe a dean, a couple of professors, no more campus than can be shaded by a couple of fire plugs, and 15 or 20 football players.

Then—and this is the thing you MUST do—name your university either Army or Navy.

No, there's nothing to stop you from doing that. It won't be stealing from the two service academies, because they're known as West Point and Annapolis.

Then you'll be set. You'll make money so fast you won't know what to do with it. Because your football team, under the magic name of the Army football team or the Navy football team, will draw the biggest crowds you ever saw. No matter whom your team plays, or where it plays, or how well it plays, the stadium will be packed to the top with paying customers. They'll fight to get seats and pay any sort of price for them.

If you don't believe this just try to buy a ticket for the game between West Point and Annapolis at Philadelphia on Saturday. These two teams call themselves Army and Navy and have been doing a land office business for years. A crowd of 102,000 will watch this game and the gate receipts will be something over half a million dollars. And the only reason that the crowd won't be 204,000 and the gate receipts a cool million or more is that there isn't a stadium that big in the country.

If you have any doubts as to the box office draw of the names Army and Navy, a study of the season records of the two teams will dispel them. West Point and Annapolis may not be the worst teams in the country, but they come so close to it that a recount would be necessary if a vote were held. They have not won a major game between them and the brand of football they have shown so far this year would curl the epaulettes of any self-respecting colonel or admiral.

But they'll draw the biggest crowd of the year.

Why, I can't answer you. There must be something born and bred into the American football fan that makes him go slightly hysterical at the sight of a few thousand boys under the age of 22 throwing their hats into the air in unison, or by marching onto a field in suits all the same color. Either that, or the American football fan has an ear which likes only to hear "March Navy Down the Field, —Anchors Aweigh," or "Oh You Sons of Slum and Gravy."

Silly, isn't it? So silly, in fact, that I don't think I'll be in my seat in Philadelphia until an hour or two before the whistle blows for the start of the game.

RANDOLPH SCOTT, Frances Dee and Ralph Bellamy have the featured parts in "Coast Guard," which is the feature for Saturday only at the Empire Theatre.

"BLACKMAIL" STARRING EDW. G. ROBINSON, SUNDAY AND MONDAY EMPIRE FEATURE; "COAST GUARD" SATURDAY'S PLAY

Edward G. Robinson, who plays an assumed name as an oil well fire dynamiter in "Blackmail," coming to the Empire theatre Sunday and Monday was born in Bucharest, Rumania. He was brought to New York as a child, educated at Columbia University, then went on the stage where before going into motion pictures he achieved fame with the New York Theatre Guild.

The earliest ambition of the hero of "Blackmail" was to become a minister. During his college days he wanted to be a lawyer, then he decided he would rather become an actor. He took part in amateur theatricals while in school and he indulged in debates and soapbox oratory. He mapped out an ambitious career for himself which was interrupted by the world war, during which time he served in the United States Navy.

Robinson has been acclaimed one of the finest actors on the American stage and has undoubtedly played more widely different roles than any other actor.

"Coast Guard," hailed by Hollywood as one of the most thrilling and dramatic records ever to be screened comes to the Empire theatre on Saturday only with Randolph Scott, Frances Dee, Ralph Bellamy and Walter Connolly featured.

Authentic and spectacular scenes provide the background against which the Coast Guard carries on its multiplicity of duties and a genuine thrill to the film.

PAUL MUNI IN "SCARFACE" WEEKEND FEATURE AT EL DORADO

The basic principle of good cinema being motion, it is amazing how few directors realize its importance.

Howard Hawks, who recently directed "Scarface," regarded as one of the biggest underworld pictures ever screened, took full cognizance of this factor. He knew well the exciting qualities possessed by western pictures because of the continuous "shots" in them. For example, horses in action, chases over hills, etc.

The result is that the big "shot" outside the hangout of some ward heeler. The script, as written by Ben Hecht, called for a shot that started in the street, ran through an ante room, card room, back hall, back room and rear yard and then into the next street.

Ordinarily the photographing and recording of films permit of their being divided into episodic sections at any point of which the cameras may be stopped at will to permit close ups, angles and other technical requirements not obvious to the layman in the completed picture. Except for these stoppings and readjustments, ten-reel films might be completed in a few days aside from the rehearsal period.

The writer wishes to congratulate the people of Pilot Hill and vicinity for the good work and interest taken in their cemetery. We only wish more communities would follow suit and improve their burial places. In providing the means or in working to keep the resting places of our departed loved ones clean and clear of brush and weeds, we prove to those passing through and visiting these places that the memory of those passed on is still in our hearts. While our dear ones are still here we love to do every deed and kindness for them. Why forget when they are laid away? No matter whether it be in a town or city, or out in a little country community, our cemeteries should be cared for and beautified to the best of our ability and we express a long heartfelt thought that more will read of Pilot Hill's good work and fall in line soon, as there are some resting places in El Dorado County that are hard to tell from some forests. Several years back those interested in the Deer Valley cemetery got together and took up a subscription and thoroughly cleaned their cemetery. Every year, each plot owner subscribes a dollar to this fund and the secretary-treasurer hires a man and the work is done after the first of May each year. The fund is kept in the El Dorado County bank and is drawn on by checks. In this way those living in distant cities always know the work is done each year and each year at the end of April a report of the work and finances is mailed to each subscriber.

Church News

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Placerville, Bedford Avenue at Union Street.

SerVICES, 11 a. m. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening. Testimonial Meeting 8 p. m.

The reading room at the church building is open Tuesday and Friday from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, November 26, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Golden Text was: "When they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that whisper, should not a people seek unto their God?" (Isa. 8: 19). Other Bible citations included: "Hear ye the word which the Lord speaketh unto you. O house of Israel: Thus saith the Lord, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. . . . But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: . . ." (Jer. 10: 1, 2, 10 to 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The varied doctrines and theories which presuppose life and intelligence to exist in matter are so many ancient and modern mythologies. Mystery, miracle, sin, and death will disappear when it becomes fairly understood that the divine Mind controls man and man has no Mind but God" (p. 319).

Spreading the Good News

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for December 3 is Matthew 10, the Golden Text being Revelations 22:17, "And let him that heareth say, Come.")

JESUS CALLED His disciples to Him and sent them on their way to preach the gospel to the Jews. "Not to the Samaritans, and not to the Gentiles," He said, but to the "lost sheep of the children of Israel."

It is interesting to learn what we can of the character of these men who had left all and followed Jesus, even to martyrdom. We cannot know much about them, but some things we do know.

Andrew, one of the first to be chosen, brought his brother Simon Peter. Jesus named him Peter, "the Rock," you remember. Peter is often referred to as Jesus' best beloved disciple. He did not always do right. For instance, it was Peter who, after telling the Lord how much he loved Him, denied him thrice. But Peter always suffered terribly after he had done wrong. He was evidently a lovable and impulsive man.

Too Eager for Honor James and John, sons of Zebedee, were sometimes too eager for honor, but they loved the Master dearly. Philip was afraid to venture; Bartholomew or Nathaniel was never deceitful; Thomas always wanted to be sure. (You know the saying, "Doubting Thomas.") Matthew honored his Lord at a feast and wrote a book about Him. Thaddaeus, or Judas, son of James, asked Jesus an important question; Simon was a zealot and was dissatisfied with Roman rule; while Judas Iscariot was not to be trusted, for he betrayed his Master for money, although it brought him only unhappiness and he destroyed himself.

These men were Jesus' chosen companions. After calling them to Him he gave them advice and sent them out to spread the good news. They are not to be worried about their personal needs, for they are to go forth without silver, gold or brass for their purses. They are to have no scrip for their journey.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

"neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat," Jesus told them. They are to go to any worthy person and be guests of the house. "And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it." He said. If they are not well received in a home, they are ordered to "shake the dust of it off their feet."

It will not be easy to preach of the good tidings, they are warned. They will probably be arrested and brought before judges, governors and kings, and may be scourged in the synagogues. But they must not fear, for "Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall to the ground without your Father."

"But the very hairs of your head are numbered."

Fear Not

"Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows," Jesus knew well that his message of peace and good would not be well received, and that there would be much bitterness and quarreling over it. "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword."

"For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a man's foes shall be those of his own household."

Jesus must have said that sadly, knowing that it was true and must be told in fairness to the men He was sending out to spread the good news. And all through the centuries it has proved true that no subject has been so bitterly discussed as religion, even by people who profess to be His true followers. They have fought even over the interpretation of His words.

In conclusion, it is written in Isaiah 42:5-6, "Thus said God the Lord, He that created the heavens, and stretched them out; He that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and the spirit to them that walk therein."

"I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light to the Gentiles."

Fitzgeralds May Reach S. F. On December 22

is a notation painted in black after the following order:

"First home run batted in by Lou Gehrig, Dec. 9, 1934."

"Second home run batted in by Babe Ruth, Dec. 9, 1934."

The Filipino is inclined to be religious. In the Walled City there are no fewer than seven churches built under the direction of the different orders of friars, dating back to 1681. These churches are on the order of the missions in California but much more elaborate in design and detail. These were built by the natives here under the supervision of the friars as the California missions were built by the Indians. In California, these missions are supposed to be built a day's journey apart, while here seven of these colossal structures are built on a quarter section of land. Many more similar structures are built outside the walls. All these old churches have been damaged or completely destroyed by earthquakes and typhoons and later have been rebuilt. Paintings and woodcarving in some of the churches are crude, but in others it is of a high order.

Although still quite busy, we feel that we will be able to leave for Home November 29th on the President Taft, arriving in San Francisco on the morning of December 22.

Sincerely,

E. J. FITZGERALD.

Quilted motif.

By VERA WINSTON

CORDED OR QUILTED bands on full skirts are very much of the mode, and offer a relief from the skirt that is simply wide, with nothing to break its line. We've sketched this taupe-colored, sheer woolen with quilted motif. The neckline is high and is self-bound with small inside tucks—center front. The skirt is gored, the seams of the two center gores worked up to shape the bodice which has a few gathers under the breast. Belt of brown suede.

REMEMBER THE good old days when the only way it was possible for a Balkan country to break into the front page news was by their banning a Mickey Mouse film?

We feel sorry for a certain radio comedian who is reduced to joking about his own jokes. He still doesn't get any laughs.

Peasant costumes are disappearing in Europe. And if this war keeps up long enough—so will the peasant.

That philosopher was right when he opined that the female of the species was deadlier than the male. We've just read an item that more and more women are taking up the profession of dentistry.

DEAR NOAH—DO CLOCKS MOVE THEIR HANDS ALL THE TIME BECAUSE THEY ARE SO FULL OF TICKS?

Jesus called to Him His twelve disciples and gave them power to heal the sick and to cast out unclean spirits. He gave them their orders, as it were, and sent them to "spread the good news."

He told them to go to the "lost sheep of the children of Israel," and preach, "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." "What I tell you in darkness," He said, "that speak ye in light."
